Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which involve factors or circumstances that are beyond our control. For example, our business could be impacted by the COVID- 19 pandemic and actions taken in response to it; the market for our products may develop more slowly than expected or than it has in the past; our operating results may fluctuate more than expected; there may be significant fluctuations in our results of operations and cash flows related to our revenue recognition or otherwise; a network or data security incident that allows unauthorized access to our network or data or our customers' data could damage our reputation; we could experience interruptions or performance problems associated with our technology, including a service outage; we may not be able to pay off our convertible senior notes when due; and global economic conditions could deteriorate. Further information on potential factors that could affect our financial results is included in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. ## FY21 Guidance Considerations

Growth

- Longer sales cycles for enterprise
- Delay in deals closing creates some near-term headwinds to RPO and billings growth
- Expect strongest headwinds in Q2 and Q3 with a return to more normal activity exiting Q4
- Risks associated with highly impacted SMB companies
- Some new interest from companies, driven by need for rapid deployment of remote access capabilities

Profitability

- Reduced spend on sales and marketing
- Reduced spend in T&E
- Lower employee related costs
- Significant decrease in interest income related to lower interest rates
